GOVERNOR McDONALD TO BE HERE TODAY

The News received information last evening that Hon. W. C. McDonald, Governor-elect of the State of New Mexico, will pass through Estancia this noon on his way to Santa Fe. As the train is scheduled to stop twenty minutes for dinner, it has been suggested that as many of our citizens who can meet the train and greet the First Governor of the Sunshine State. Our people need not fear that the Governor will miss his lunch by their meeting him, as a special lunch will be provided for him, which he may eat at his leisure after the train leaves Estancia.

The school board has decided to give the children a holiday Friday as well as Thursday. With the children busy with turkeys on Thursday, it will be almost impossible to get down to work on Friday, and the boys and girls can rest up for next week.

REVIVAL TO COMMENCE NEXT THURSDAY

Evangelist Huckabee, who is at present conducting a series of meetings at Roswell, will be in Estancia next week and on Thursday night begin a series of meetings at the Methodist Church. He will be accompanied by J. B. Crawford, who assists him in the meetings. Both are reported as interesting speakers and intense workers, and will give their best efforts here, the home of Mr. Crawford. Everybody is invited to attend the meetings and work for their success.

Nestor Candelaria has been commissioned postmaster at Manzano, Torrance county, the postoffice having been re-established. For some months there has been no postoffice at Manzano, the reason therefor being that no one cared to act as postmaster. The job is not a highly lucrative one, the trouble being several times that of the returns.

Milton Dow returned from Albuquerque Sunday and is making arrangements to move his family to the Dose City at once. Mr. Dow is one of the old timers in the valley and we hate to see him go, but our loss is Albuquerque's gain.

The Catholic Sunday school will have a Christmas entertainment on Saturday night, December 23. There will be a tree and a treat for the little folks, with a program of music and recitations. A good time is anticipated.

Service Tonight

Rev. John Mordy, Sabbath School Missionary of the Rio Grande Presbytery, will assist the local pastor, Rev. J. R. Carver in meetings each night this week, commencing to night at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Mordy is an interesting speaker and those attending will be more than repaid for the effort. Everybody invited.

Mrs. W. A. Comer was in town yesterday from the farm northeast, arranging to deliver Thanksgiving turkeys. Owing to several invitations to assist friends in their feasts, our Thanksgiving turkey has been reprieved for about thirty days, and will change into a Christmas turkey instead. We hope Mr. Turkey enjoys the respite.

The woman who does the dishes and sings, "We'll work Till Jesus Comes," while her 16 year-old daughter stands out by the front gate exchanging giggles with her beaux is in the same class with the man who gives a share of his hard earned money to his son to blow in playing pool. The parents are mostly to blame for the kids going wrong. Field and Farm.

In a recent issue the Raton Range says:

"The Range supported Mr. Bursum's candidacy wholeheartedly because he was the party's nominee, but for no other reason."

Any paper or man who would support a nominee simply because he was nominated by the "bosses" would do anything else the bosses would tell it or him to do. If there is no other reason for doing a thing, better not do it.

The prospect is excellent for a number of changes in the minor offices at the capitol and at the penitentiary about the first of the year. There is to be a traveling auditor, a game warden, an assistant superintendent of public instruction, an engineer, a librarian, an oil inspector, an adjutant general, a captain of the mounted police and a superintendent of the penitentiary to be appointed under the state government, and it is understood that there are dozens of applications already in the hands of the governor-elect for these positions. Governor McDonald is going to have plenty of material from which to make his selections of appointive officers. Eagle.

A Year Each in Jail for Tarring Lady

Lincoln Center, Kan., Nov. 24. Two of the defendants in the "Tar party" case, John Schmidt and Sherrill Clark, late today were found guilty of assault and battery by a jury in Judge Grover's court, that has been out continuously since 11:30 o'clock Thursday morning. A. N. Sims, the third defendant, was acquitted.

Sentence on the two men was deferred to permit attorneys to argue a motion for a new trial.

Earlier in the day in the same court, sentence of one year each in the county jail, the extreme penalty in Kansas for the offense charged, was passed on Everett G. Clark, Jay Fitzwater, Watson Scranton and Edward Ricord, confessed assailants of Miss Mary Chamberlain. These defendants, were accused of the same crime as the other men.

In addition to the sentences, the court ruled that the men must pay the costs of the prosecution. An effort was made by attorneys for Fitzwater and Clark to have the court entertain a motion to grant an appeal to the supreme court on the ground that the sentence was excessive. This motion was not passed on today.

Ricord, already was in jail, having been surrendered by his bondsmen seventy-seven days ago.

When the republicans of New Mexico endorse Andrews' untiring efforts for statehood, they are nearer the truth than they realize. Andrews' efforts for statehood never tired him in the least.—Farmington Times-Herald.

Beattie Confesses Guilt

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., went to his death at dawn today, the confessed murderer of his young wife, although the confession was not made public until four hours after he had paid the toll exacted by the law.

He maintained to the end the remarkable nerve he had exhibited since first he was accused of killing his wife last July. His last expression was a sneer when he observed the chair that was to launch him into eternity.

The confession was made public in the rotunda of a downtown hotel by the Rev. Benjamin Dennis, one of the ministers who had labored with Beattie to repent. As a matter of fact, it was acknowledged by the minister, Beattie first admitted his guilt November 9, the day after he entered the death cell and before the fruitless appeal for a commutation of sentence was made to Governor Mann.

It was not until yesterday that he would agree to its being put in writing for his signature. Then all hope that the governor would interfere was gone.

It is understood that a bill will be introduced at the beginning of the legislative session providing for the Australian ballot in New Mexico. It is to be hoped that a bill of this nature will pass so that there will be no more interfering with voters of the polls. The Australian system eliminates, to a great degree, the purchase of votes and frauds in elections. It is notorious that the buying of votes in New Mexico has been practiced for years and it has not been confined to one political party. It has been done with impunity so far as prosecutions have been concerned and purchasers of votes have grown bold in vote buying. It is time to stop this sort of work and the best way to accomplish the desired end is to pass an election law which will make the delivery of purchased votes uncertain.—Eagle.

The County commissioners met in special session yesterday, Chairman Jesus Candalaria and Julian R. Romero being present. A resolution was adopted to rescind the action of the board in the matter of the double school levy for the county, made some months ago. An extra levy of three mills was made without authority, and this was rescinded.

The resignation of R. L. Hitt as justice of the peace for Precinct No. 8, Willard, was accepted, and upon petition presented, signed by a number of the citizens of that precinct J. H. Underwood was named as justice.
